~~Come Let us join our Evening~~

1 Come Let us join our Evening Prayers
And give to the wind our worldly Cares
Well ply our oars o'er lifes Rough Sea
We are sailing to Eternity

2 Bro.
Though danks the night in which we sail
Our Lords Command we cannot fail
For wind and storm ~~&~~ his word obey
And

1 Let me go The Breaking
Dawn Commands Let Down our Anchor I spent a night in praising our Lord & night in prayer & now I lend my ears
& eyes to hear the Breath of Man -

2

Let me go if you will not stay
Let me go if you will not pray
Friendly and with kindness
Shall my Lord Jesus Teach
Thee to pray

The Irish Peasants Song

(On his pillow of Straw a peasant was lying no morning had he saw the rays which he wore of famine and want this poor peasant was dying
And Sun would his troubles & end sorrow be o'er)

(But there as he lay there came over the room
A light ray of hope for long Years dark lot
The sufferers eye lighted up with emotion
When she now like a sunshine illumined his cot)

(A- Came from a land far over the billow
She land the termine the beautiful west
And raised his head from the Straw pillow
She thus in a prayer his deep feeling expressed)

(I thank the oh God for the aid thou hast given
By the hand of the Stranger we the sea
Accept my poor praises kind father in heaven
For this succor which Cometh direct[illegible] from the)

(I am with the sun will be silently sleeping
When the heart ch grief will no longer be prest
And trusting my soul to thy merciful keeping Sleep in the grave from affliction to rest)

(Be kate them for me this blessing descended
But thou return i luv of ch treasures that share my wife and my little ones they are befriended
And rescued from misery from want and despair)

(Oh go with that hand be thy spirit blessing
Which Cheers us in sorrow and lightens our woes
Be thou still the power ch high looking guarding Preserve it from danger each ill overthrow)
